Fairport, N.Y. – The sun was out, as was a massive crowd, for day one of the Fairport Canal Days Saturday.

Thousands gathered along the Erie Canal for the annual event, which included more than 200 artists, 30 bands, dozens of food vendors and a new kid zone.

Fairport Mayor Fritz May said it's a wonderful weekend for the village.

"I love bringing people into the village," he said. "I've been working on this for probably 22 or 23 years, and every time I see this number of people I get chills. I just love to see all these people come in and have a good time.

Canal Days runs Sunday from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.
